Welcome to our tenth year of Gay Pride Celebration! We have truly evolved over the years. It wasn't long ago that Palm Springs celebrated pride with a single entertainment stage indoors, with local entertainment and a drag show. This year we have added a main stage. Eric Pruitt from CSW/LA has brought quality performers for our enjoyment. Of course we have the Country Western Dance tent hosted by the Midnight Cowboys and our ever popular Hi-NRG dance tent. The two-day festival with parade format continues to grow in popularity. This year we boldly chose to leave the hot summer months, traditionally the gay pride season, and move our date to November. Please let us know if you like the new format and date.

This year's theme is "Serving in Silence No More," partly in response to the Clinton administration's "Don't Ask; Don't Tell" policy and the Veterans Day remembrance. The theme acknowledges the thousands of courageous lesbian, gay, and bi members of the armed forces who have served and continue their service to our Nation. We honor them this weekend and give them special recognition in our 4th Annual Gay Pride Parade.

Our mission as the producers of Gay Pride here in Palm Springs is to provide a venue for each and every one of us to celebrate our diversity and Lesbigay Pride. It is the one time of the year that we can proudly parade down the street to the festival and proclaim our gay pride. The festival continues the celebration with its varied vendors, dance tents and entertainers. We are also here to make a profit. By making a profit we can then help fund worthy organizations. Just a few weeks ago Palm Springs Lesbian & Gay Pride disbursed $2,700.00. We are extremely proud of this accomplishment. We hope that from this year's event and our new association with Party Boy Productions that we will be able to give more!

Many volunteers give a lot--in their time, skills and financially--to help make Palm Springs Pride a success. We thank every one of them! Palm Springs Pride wouldn't happen without your dedication. For those who want to get involved for '96 with the international theme of "Pride without Borders" please phone the pride line at (619) 322-8769 as we welcome your help.

Yours in Pride,
Richard Black

Tom "Gator" Swann
Lee Miller

Tom Swann
Proud Gay Veteran & Naval Civilian Employee

We honor Tom Swann who served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1976-80. He was stationed in the Philippines and participated in two deployments to the Mediterranean Sea. Tom received the Papal Blessing in Rome, saw the Holy Shroud, and toured the Dachau Nazi concentration camp. He was on a ship poised for a rescue attempt during the initial days of the Iranian hostage crisis.

Tom's ACLU complaint against the Department of the Navy was a catalyst for change. The case prompted the Secretary of the Navy to issue a revised Equal Employment Opportunity / Diversity Statement. The historic new policy added sexual orientation protection for civilian workers including HIV/AIDS discrimination, costing the ACLU over $100,000.00. This policy change is remarkable since the Secretary of Defense has stated that sexual orientation protection is not on his agenda.

Tom was a leader in the effort to lift the military ban. He worked with the ACLU and White House staff to submit an Executive Order to President Clinton days before the March on Washington. The proposal would have formally authorized the wearing of military uniforms by veterans. Ultimately the President did not sign the Executive Order. Later, Headquarters Marine Corps would seek an investigation of Tom Swann as a civilian Navy employee who wore his Marine Corps uniform without this authorization.

Lee Miller
Lesbian Veteran
Lee is a special person. You haven't read about her with headline articles in the press as we have with Tom Swann. This doesn't mean that Lee is any less worthy than Tom. Lee, a Lesbian Veteran, worked quietly but most effectively behind the scenes. Lee was Keith Meinhold's housemate, friend and support person. Lee was there to keep Keith's attitude positive with the formidable task of taking on the U.S. Military. Lee has worked towards ending the discrimination policy in the military and developed the idea for the Restoration Project, where she is currently focused.

The Wall of Restitution will represent symbolic restitution for those who lived with or still live with silence, fear, shame, mistreatment, dishonor and denial of full civil rights under the discriminatory Department of Defense policy. Those who have been murdered, killed in action, committed suicide, or died without acknowledgement will be memorialized.

The Donald Cannata Advantage!

More Sales!

He represented more transactions last year than any other individual associate or team in his Palm Springs office. His personal sales production rivals many total office statistics.

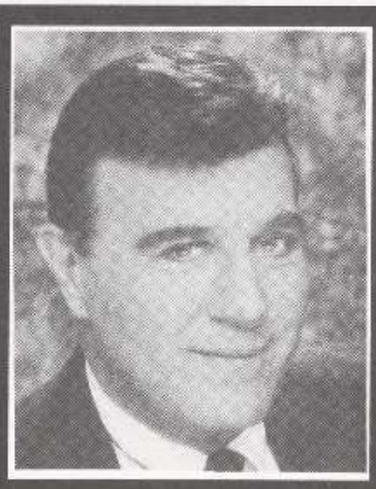

More Success!

Voted The Desert's Favorite Local Realtor last year by readers of The Desert Sun (our local daily newspaper) was quite an honor but he attributes this award to the many buyers and sellers who continue to provide him with repeat business. His client services are the key since previous customers refer their friends or call him again when they have additional real estate needs.

More Recognition!

As the only associate in his Palm Springs office to have ever received Prudential's highest honor of Chairman's Circle, he is quite proud of his sales record. The numbers will simply astonish you.

UNIVERSAL COVERAGE

A tantalizing term recently used in the debate on health care in America--and a reality for people with HIV Disease in the Coachella Valley since 1991.

The HIV Health Center of the Desert AIDS Project provides expert medical care to persons living with AIDS and other forms of HIV Disease. Noted Infectious Disease Specialist, Dr. Shubha Kerkar, has joined the Center as Medical Director, and Dr. Clayton Barbour is the full-time Primary Care Physician. Between them, they possess over 20 years of experience in treatment of HIV-induced conditions.

Now, everyone has access to an expert level of care, independent of their ability to pay. WEST SIDE STORY

A brand new international tour of the great Robbins-Laurents-Bernstein-Sondheim musical! Based on Shakespeare's timeless love story, Romeo and Juliet, it is set against the gritty backdrop of gang warfare on the streets of New York City.
As two rival teenage gangs battle over their share of neighborhood turf, a boy and a girl from the opposing sides - and different races - meet and fall in love.

"Somewhere," "Tonight," "Maria," "Something's Coming" and "I Feel Pretty" are just a few of the classic standards from this American musical milestone.
