The ultimate goal of Greater Palm Springs Pride, Inc. is to produce an event which educates the community at large of the gifts, talents, and resources that exist and are available to everyone in the community. Along with that is to bring attention to the civil rights of everyone, not just the LGBT community.

When Pride is a financial success, we are able to give something back to our community in addition to our efforts at the festival and throughout the year. Our success is directly connected to each member of our community that has supported us and enabled us to produce our community pride event. Please take note in this program to realize who supports us; who appreciates that participating and support is what makes this event possible.

Welcome!

Welcome to the Greater Palm Springs Pride 2010

This year's parade and festival will be our community's 24th annual pride celebration.

Our theme this year is "Stand Up. Stand Out. Stand Proud!" The theme calls on the community to "Stand Up" and be a part of the process, "Stand Out" and let your voice be heard and "Stand Proud" for who we are as a lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community.

The theme is a call to action for each of us. The selection was made on the eve of U.S. District Chief Judge Vaughn R. Walker's ruling that upended California's same-sex marriage ban and the subsequent 9th Circuit Court of Appeals action putting gay marriage on hold indefinitely. The theme is intended to evoke a spirit of activism that rests in each one of us.

Enjoy the 2010 pride celebration and our freedom of self-expression. Please remember and honor those who have courageously fought for equality and are no longer with us. Gather your friends and join us and together we will celebrate our diversity and advance the cause of individual freedom for all.

Thank you for "Standing Up, Standing Out and Standing Proud!" By going to the parade and the festival you are helping to raise awareness and visibility of the LGBT community.

As always, we trust that while celebrating you will party safely and have a chance to enjoy all the talents, gifts, and resources our community and our beautiful valley have to offer.

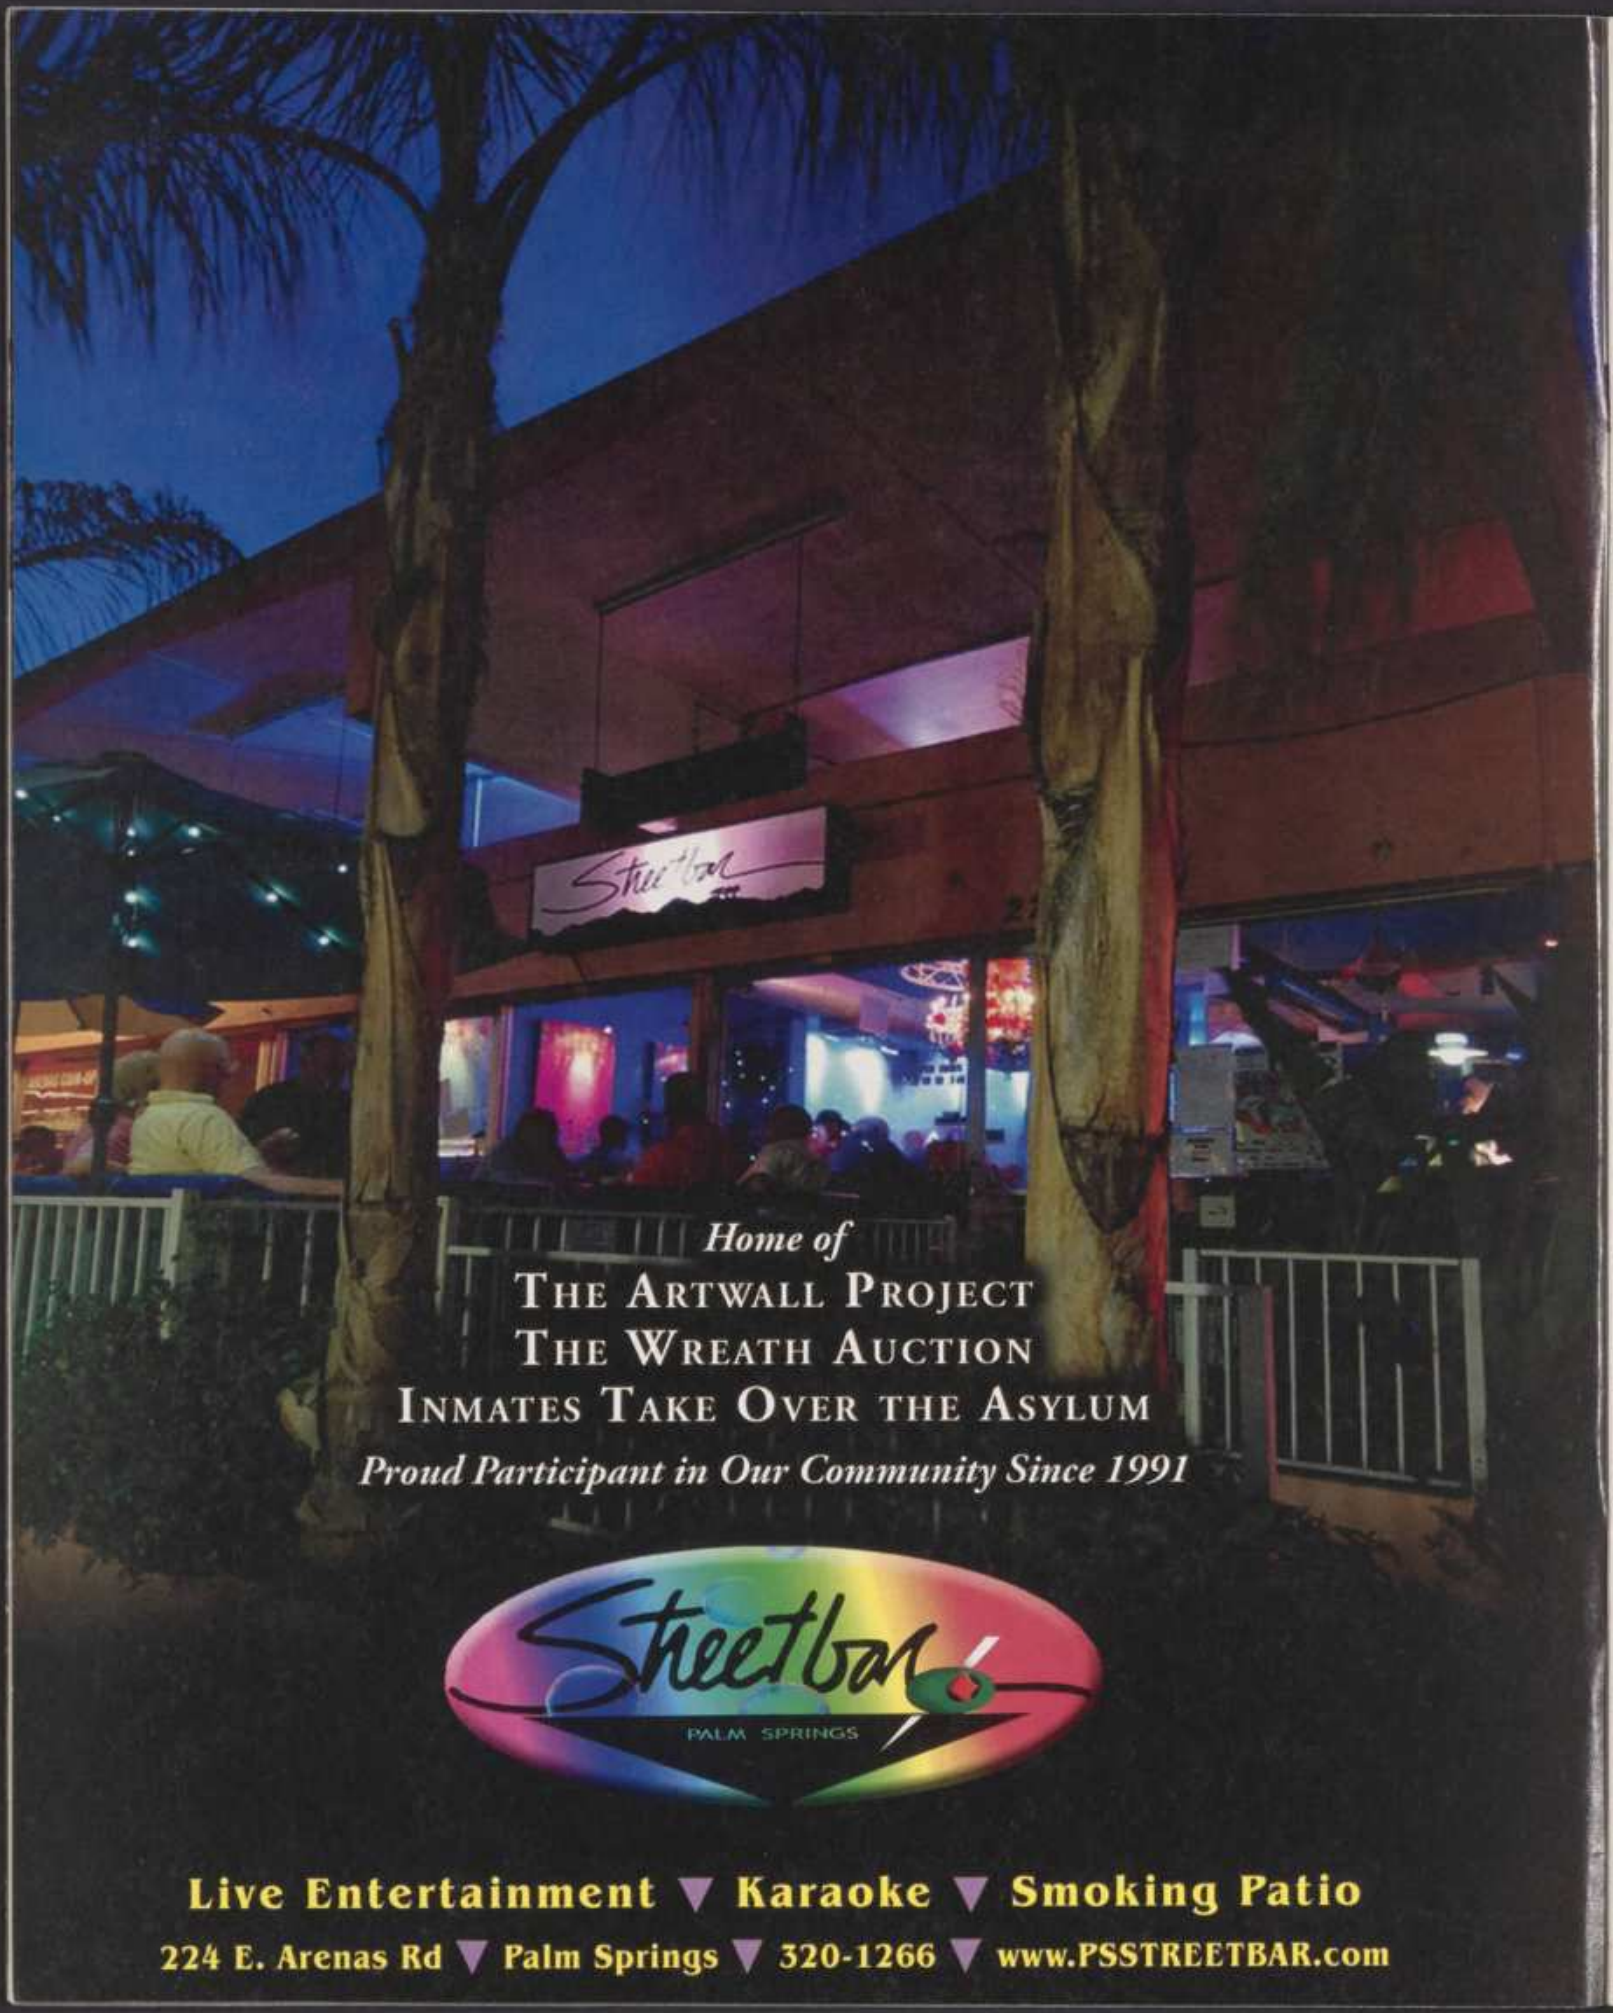

Let's stand together. We still have a ways to go…

November 2010

Stephen P. Pougnet, Mayor

As Mayor, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 24th Palm Springs Pride Celebration being held this year on November 6th and 7th.

The theme of this year's Pride "Stand Up. Stand Out. Stand Proud!" calls on the community to "Stand Up" and be a part of the process, "Stand Out" and let your voice be heard and "Stand Proud" for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community. Each year, the parade and festival symbolize a coming together of the many unique facets of the GLBT community to promote self-expression, honor diversity and to advance the cause of individual freedom.

This year, we celebrate 24 years of gathering in our fair city. We have come a long way through the efforts of many, many individuals who have continued to work through the stages of progress in the evolution to where the Pride Festival and Pride Parade are today.

Let's give thanks for the achievements attained, with a strengthened resolve to continue the fight for equality and to advance our individual rights for all individuals.

Thank you for coming to Palm Springs and our Pride Festival and Parade.

Very truly yours,

Stephen P. Pougnet, Mayor

Pride Parade – 24th anniversary of pride celebrations in Palm Springs

The most scenic pride parade in the world!

SUNDAY, November 7

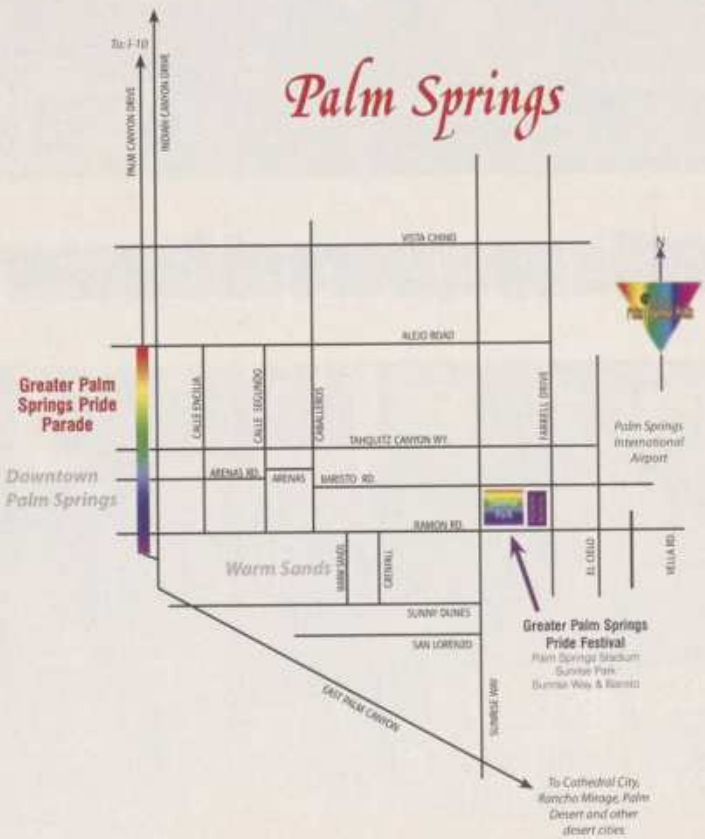

Parade Step Off at 10:00am

Parade Route

Starts at E. Ramon Rd. and travels one mile north along Palm Canyon Drive to Alejo Rd. (The Route officially ends at W. Alejo Rd and N. Palm Canyon Drive.)

Known for its crystal blue skies, year-round sunshine, stunning landscape, palm tree lined streets and starry nights the City of Palm Springs comes alive during the annual pride celebration. Rainbow flags and glitter will fill the streets as the ever present Mount San Jacinto Mountains star in the most scenic pride parade in the world. The downtown parade steps off at 10am and travels north from E. Ramon Rd. along historic Palm Canyon Drive.

Be a part of the parade and see for yourself who will best incorporate the 2010 Theme "Stand Up. Stand Out. Stand Proud!" in their parade contingent. Who will present the best out-of-town entry? Who will have the most original or outrageous entry? Join your friends and family and have fun selecting the best community organization entry, the best float and the most outrageous and creative marching contingent.

Reviewing Stand Presented by Pride Nation

Join PNN Radio's Allen Edwards from "Allen's World Radio Show", and stand up comic Shann Carr along with a special appearance by international dance diva Pepper MaShay as they bring you the play by play of the Palm Springs Pride parade. It's all happening in front of the Hyatt Regency Suites along Palm Canyon Drive near E. Amado Road.

Brought to listeners and viewers through the support of PNN Radio and Proud TV, the 2010 Palm Springs Pride Parade will be broadcast live with hosts sharing the stage with celebrity appearances and featured community guests. The live audio broadcast will air on 88.1 FM, PNN Radio and on most smartphones. The TV broadcast will be live on the Netflix box as well as streamed on the web at PrideNation.com. Don't miss this bird's-eye-view of the largest gathering of the LGBT community in the Greater Palm Springs Area.

Parade

Dismantling Area

N. Palm Canyon Drive between Alejo Rd. and W. Chino Dr. All parade contingents will dismantle in this area. Floats and vehicles can tear down and become street legal but must be out of traffic lanes when the parade ends and the street reopens to traffic.

Staging Area

Will be closed to local traffic at 7am Sunday November 7. S. Palm Canyon Dr will be closed from Camino Parocela to W. Ramon Rd., W. Ramon Rd will be closed from S. Belardo Rd to S. Indian Canyon Dr. Enter the staging area at Camino Parocela and S. Palm Canyon Dr.

Parking

There is plenty of parking in the downtown area. Please plan a little extra time as regular parking becomes scarce downtown as the start of the parade nears.

Advice for Spectators

Palm Springs Pride works all year long to bring this event to life and provide the best possible experience to all spectators. Here are a few tips on how to enjoy the parade safely:

- Wear sunscreen! It will be a warm and sunny morning, so bring a tube of sunscreen with you.
- Bring water!
- Have fun! Sing, chant, and clap for and with the participating groups!
- Watch out for (your) kids - Make sure that children are safe and not running around on the street, especially when vehicles are approaching.
- Respect the instructions from the parade staff and volunteers - They are only doing their job and enforcing safety measures for the benefit of everyone.
- Avoid crossing the street when vehicles or animals are approaching - This slows down the Parade and creates unnecessary risks.
- Stay on the sidewalk or behind safety lines and barricades - Advancing into the street when contingents approach slows down the parade and creates unnecessary risks. Maneuvering vehicles require large clearance on the street.

The following rules will be in force during the parade:

- The Palm Springs City Ordinance (11.10.040) prohibiting public nudity on public or private property open to view from any public area will be strictly enforced.
- No tossing or throwing of items from parade entries into the crowd, in accordance with Palm Springs City Ordinance.

Proclamation

City of Palm Springs

CALIFORNIA

WHEREAS, Palm Springs lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender citizens are commemorating their community's rich history of courage, spirit, achievement, and activism by organizing the 24th annual Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender Pride celebration, this year under the theme of "Stand Up. Stand Out. Stand Proud!"; and

WHEREAS, this year's events, held on November 6 and 7th, 2010, feature the most scenic pride parade in the world, traveling along historic Palm Canyon Drive with the ever-present Mount San Jacinto Mountains providing a breathtaking backdrop; and

WHEREAS, the unique two-day pride festival held at the former spring training home of the California Angels and Chicago White Sox, will see thousands take to the field with the baseball diamond serving as the gathering spot for friends and a celebration of diversity and unity. Complete with gay-owned and LGBT friendly companies, the festival includes music, dancing, and food; and

WHEREAS, The Golden Rainbow Center - SAGE will be recognized as the Organization of the Year, joined by Rick Saputo, Barbara Barrett and Sharon Doty, who will be recognized for their volunteerism, as the Volunteers of the Year; and

WHEREAS, the first openly gay candidate to run for public office in the United States, José Julio Sarria, along with dedicated friend to the event community and devoted military liaison for the City of Palm Springs Michele Cirone-Collier, will be celebrated as the Community Grand Marshals. Prolific writer, pioneering publisher and a proud advocate for all LGBT causes, Len Barot (Radcliffe), will be the Celebrity Grand Marshal of the Pride Parade; and

WHEREAS, members of the LGBT community have made valuable contributions in business, the arts, military, volunteerism, leadership, religion, medicine, law, environmental protection, athletics, civil rights, and education. They continue to lead the larger community in addressing and remedying the many problems posed by issues such as the HIV/AIDS pandemic, hate crimes, lack of accessibility for the disabled, and discrimination.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Stephen P. Pougnet, Mayor of the City of Palm Springs, California, by the power vested in me, do hereby recognize the many civic contributions of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community in Palm Springs, and encourage all people to share in the pride of our City's diverse citizenry by participating in the 24th annual Palm Springs Pride celebration, and proclaim November 6 and 7, 2010 to be:

Organization of the Year

Golden Rainbow Center – SAGE

It is estimated that by 2030, one in five Americans will be age 65 or older and that roughly four million of these will be gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender. It is also estimated that ninety-six percent of America's social service and care-giving agencies offer no services specifically designed for LGBT seniors. Several studies among healthcare administrators document widespread homophobia among those entrusted with the care of America's seniors. Most LGBT elders do not avail themselves of services on which other seniors thrive and many retreat back into the closet, reinforcing isolation.

Our community is blessed with The Golden Rainbow Center – SAGE, which is recognized as a model for providing resources to empower and enhance the quality of life for all Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender older adults. It exists to encourage health, wellness and social programs in a safe, welcoming, vibrant environment and to project a positive image of the LGBT older adult community.

The Center originated in late 2000, when an individual created via a bequest, The Prime Timers of the Desert Foundation. Through initial funding, the Foundation created the Golden Rainbow Senior Center as a social facility for gay seniors. In May 2010, the Golden Rainbow Center joined forces with SAGE (Services and Advocacy for GLBT Elders), the oldest and largest organization serving and advocating for GLBT elders.

The Center serves an area including Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs, High Desert Cities, Indian Wells, Inland Empire, Indio, La Quinta, Palm Desert, Palm Springs and Rancho Mirage. The Center provides GLBT seniors numerous opportunities for social and educational acitivities along with fitness and wellness programs.

The Golden Rainbow Center – SAGE is located at 700 E. Tahquitz Canyon Way, Suite F, in Palm Springs. For more information on the center, visit their website at www.grcps.org, or call 760-416-7790.

Greater Palm Springs Pride is pleased to recognize the achievements and value to our community of The Golden Rainbow Center – SAGE as Pride's Organization of the Year.

A PROUD SPONSOR OF PALM SPRINGS PRIDE

Community Grand Marshal

Michele Cirone-Collier

Michele Cirone-Collier has worked with the Greater Palm Springs Pride Board for many years in her capacity as City of Palm Springs Special Events Coordinator/Military Liaison, and has personally helped coordinate the operations for the parade and festival. She has been involved personally with the parade's growth from a small street parade near DeMuth Park to moving to downtown Palm Springs on Palm Canyon Drive and becoming one of the largest parades that is hosted in Palm Springs.

Michele recently retired from her post with the City of Palm Springs. During her 21 years of service to the community, she coordinated operations for all parades and events (city sponsored and non-city sponsored) held on public property in the City of Palm Springs. From car races to craft shows, from the parade of planes, to the Palm Springs Pride Parade, she was intrinsically involved in the coordination of all city services and related public agencies participating in the events. She was the lead coordinator for the City of Palm Springs Veterans Day Parade and also served on the coordinating committee for the one year anniversary of the 9/11 tragedy that hit our nation. She is particularly proud of coordinating the annual Holiday Concert and helped the event grow from attracting approximately 900 people at the high school to over 3,000 at the Convention Center.

Prior to her service with the City of Palm Springs, Michele was with Loyola Marymount University coordinating commencements and facilities scheduling. She was also a high school teacher in the Los Angeles area.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, her family relocated to California in 1978 where she joined them after completing college in Tucson. She moved to the Coachella Valley almost 22 years ago and loves the desert. She has a wonderful husband, Jeff, two nieces and nephews, two step-children, and two grand-children. She is a culinary aficionado and enjoys cooking for others. In her newly retired mode she hopes to cook privately for those who no longer can or want to cook for themselves.

Speaking of her long relationship with Pride, she said: "The festival is top notch and its high caliber and quality is due to the tremendous hard work of the Pride Board. The Palm Springs Pride Board has created such an outstanding quality event, by which other events in the valley now have to set their benchmarks quite high to be comparable." Greater Palm Springs Pride is pleased to honor Michele Cirone-Collier as Community Grand Marshal in recognition of her long service to our community and enriching our lives.

Community Grand Marshal

José Sarria

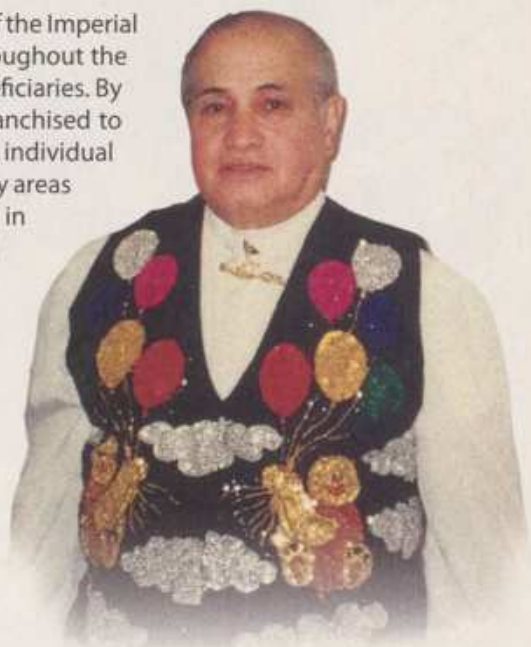

Greater Palm Springs Pride honors José Sarria, LGBT rights activist and the founder of the International Imperial Court System, as Community Grand Marshal.

An early LGBT activist, Sarria co-founded several homophile organizations, including the League for Civil Education, the Tavern Guild and the Society for Individual Rights. Sarria became the first openly gay candidate for public office in the United States when he ran for the San Francisco Board of Supervisors in 1961. In 1964 Sarria declared himself "Empress José I, The Widow Norton" and founded the Imperial Court System, which grew to become an international association of charitable organizations.

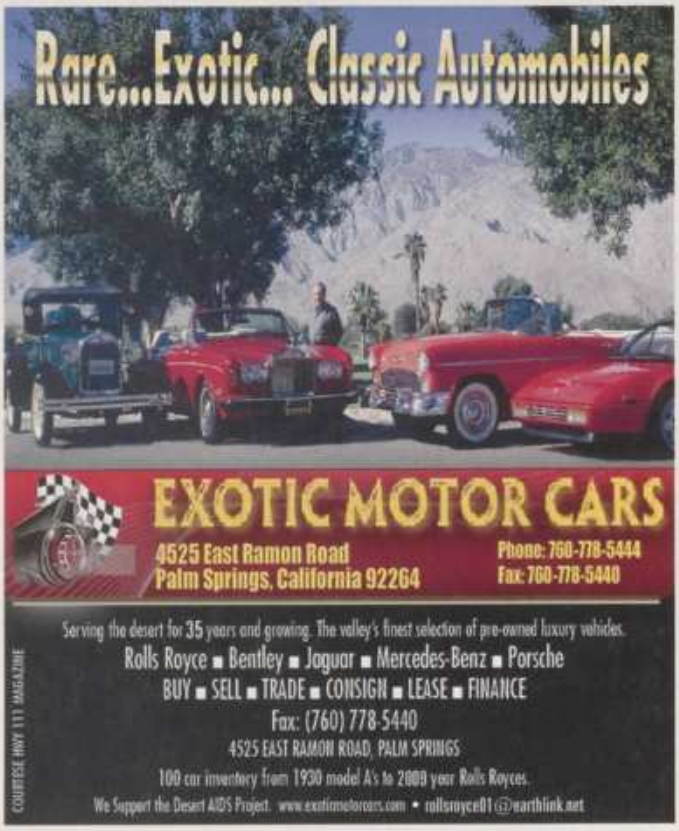

In 1961 José did the heroic deed for which he is best known today: he filed as the first openly gay candidate in the world to run for public office, the position of a San Francisco city supervisor, the same political office won by Harvey Milk 16 years later. Although José did not win in 1961, he shocked both the city's gay and straight communities by gathering a hefty 5,600 votes coming in 9th out of a field of 32 candidates. The realization that a gay voting bloc could wield considerable political clout in San Francisco is cited by a number of political strategists resulting from José's impressive vote tally.

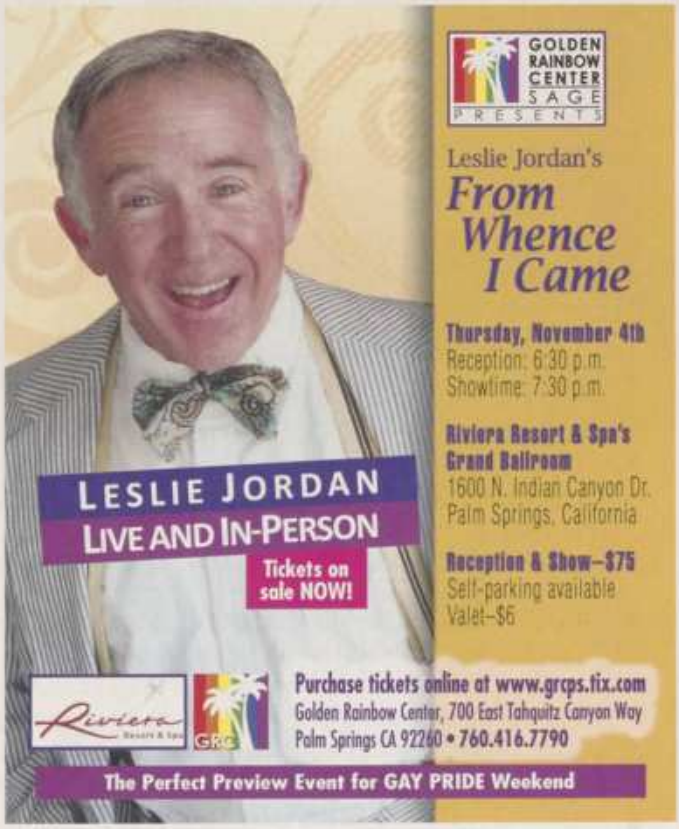

Crowned Queen of the Beaux Arts Ball in 1964 by the Tavern Guild, Sarria proclaimed himself "Her Royal Majesty, Empress of San Francisco, José I, The Widow Norton". Sarria devised the name "Widow Norton" as a reference to the much-celebrated citizen of 19th century San Francisco, Joshua Norton, who had declared himself Emperor of the United States and Protector of Mexico in 1859. Sarria organized elaborate annual pilgrimages to lay flowers on Norton's grave at a cemetery outside of San Francisco. He purchased a plot adjacent to Norton's and plans to be interred there.

Sarria's assumption of the title of Empress led to the establishment of the Imperial Court System, a network of non-profit charitable organizations throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico that raise money for various beneficiaries. By the early 1970s, the Court system established by José had been franchised to first Vancouver, Canada, and then Portland. Over the next thirty years, individual courts answering to the Widow Norton have spread to nearly seventy areas (some based in cities while others cover whole states or provinces) in the United States, Canada and Mexico. The Imperial Court of San Francisco along with the California courts raised thousands of dollars and was instrumental in defeating the Briggs Initiative in 1978. Today, the International Imperial Court System is the second largest gay and lesbian organization in the world – second only to the Metropolitan Community Church.

José continued to reign over the Courts for 43 years, before abdicating in 2007. For his lifetime of activism, the city of San Francisco renamed a section of 16th Street in Sarria's honor. He resides today in Palm Springs.

As an author writing under the nom de plume "Radclyffe," she has published over 25 novels and anthologies. With her unique perspective as both author and publisher, she provides a forum to support the growth of each author's career while producing quality works to enrich the body of lesbian fiction. She states: "I believe that publishing is about building long-term relationships and establishing careers through a combination of quality production, aggressive marketing, and wide-scale distribution. I also believe it is about aiding excellent authors to improve their craft through effective, targeted editing in an environment of mutual respect and rapport. I am an author, and I know how much more it takes to 'make a book' than just placing a cover on a manuscript. Done with respect and love for the craft, creating a book is a never-ending joy. My mission is to provide that experience to every author at Bold Strokes Books."

She is a member of Romance Writers of America, the Publishing Triangle, and the Independent Book Publishers Association. As an author, she has received the Alice B. Readers Award twice, once for lifetime achievement, The Lambda Literary Award in both romance and erotica, and multiple Golden Crown Literary Society Awards. She has organized and sponsored the Palm Springs Lesbian Book Festival in Palm Springs for the past three years in conjunction with Casitas Laquita Resort.

Radclyffe is a retired surgeon and full time author-publisher and winner of two Lammy awards. She has over thirty lesbian novels and anthologies in print, including the Lambda Literary Award winners Erotic Interludes 2 with Stacia Seaman and the romance, Distant Shores, Silent Thunder, as well as the Lambda Literary Award Mystery Finalist, Justice Served and Romance Finalists Turn Back Time and When Dreams Tremble. Her work includes romance, erotica, intrigue and suspense. Strong women in love populate her imagination and her fiction. She is also the recipient of the 2003 and 2004 Alice B. Readers' award for her body of work and the president of Bold Strokes Books, one of the world's largest independent LGBTQ publishing companies.

Says Radclyffe, "I began reading lesbian fiction at the age of twelve when I found a copy of Ann Bannon's Beebo Brinker. That book and others like it convinced me that I was not alone, that there were other women who felt like I did. Our literature provides support and validation, and very often, a lifeline for members of our community throughout the world. I am proud and honored to be able to publish the many fine authors at Bold Strokes Books and to contribute in some small way to the words that celebrate our lives. I live with my partner, Lee and our family of dogs, in the country in upstate New York and in Provincetown, Mass. I am a member of the Lambda Literary Foundation, Romance Writers of America, Publishing Triangle, and Publisher's Marketing Association (PMA)."

Bold Strokes Books offers a diverse collection of LesbianGayBiTransQueer general and genre fiction. BSB genre fiction includes romance, action, adventure, mystery/intrigue, speculative fiction (sci-fi/fantasy/horror), and erotica. BSB Victory (Lesbian) and Liberty (GBT) Editions include literary and popular fiction as well as non-fiction that explore the LGBT experience in its many forms (contemporary, historical, saga) while telling strong human stories with universal themes.

A professional, a prolific writer, a pioneering publisher and a proud advocate for all GLBT causes, we are delighted to welcome Len Barot (Radcliffe) as Greater Palm Springs Pride's Celebrity Grand Marshal.

Crystal Waters

Crystal Waters enjoyed three major pop–dance hits in the early/mid '90s: "Gypsy Woman (She's Homeless)" (1991), "100% Pure Love" (1994) and "Say... If You Feel Alright" (1997). She is also the singer in "Destination Calabria", a 2007 hit release by Alex Gaudino, a mashup which uses vocals from her 2004 song "Destination Unknown" and instrumental from Rune RK's 2003 hit "Calabria".

"Gypsy Woman" became a worldwide hit, memorable for its la da dee la dee da refrain and its often sampled keyboard riff. The track reached #8 on the Billboard Hot 100, and found even more success in Europe, reaching #2 on the UK Singles Chart. In 1994 when "100% Pure Love" hit #11 on the Billboard Hot 100, it became one of the longest charting singles on the Hot 100 at 45 weeks ("Gypsy Woman" remained on the chart for an average 16 weeks).

In 2007 Waters embarked on a world tour; performing sold out shows in Russia, Egypt, the United Kingdom, Germany, Mexico and Dubai, among other locations. In 2007 her track "Destination Calabria" hit the Top 10 on the UK Singles Chart.

In May 2008, Waters issued the single "Dancefloor", giving Waters yet another Top 10 Dance hit. "Never Enough" hit #20 on the US Dance Charts in February 2009.

She was born October 10, 1964 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and is the great-niece of singer/actress Ethel Waters.

Robin S

"Show Me Love", Robin's first gold single, introduced her as one of the premier vocalists of the early 1990. The chart-topping single, punctuated with energetic remixes from Stonebridge Productions of Sweden, originally gained popularity in Europe on Champion Records in 1993. The success of the record caught the eyes of executives at Big Beat Records and Robin S was on her way to fulfilling her dreams.

In 1993, Robin was named BEST DANCE ARTIST at the Billboard Awards and Show Me Love received 2 awards for BEST DANCE SINGLE and BEST DANCE ARTIST. Robin also earned 2 awards at the industry Annual Winter Dance Music Conference for BEST DANCE ARTIST SOLO and BEST NEW DANCE SINGLE.

Robin's live performances on the stage continue to work its magic and show off Robin's diversity.

She finds no trouble engaging her audience. "When I do a show, I want people to feel as if they are an intricate part of my performances. I often bring individuals on stage to dance with me."

In the years since turning worldwide dance floors and pop radio airwaves upside down with the massive smash "Show Me Love," Robin has traveled an enlightening journey toward heightened self-awareness and creative maturity. "I've grown so much, emotionally and spiritually and I am very clear on my vision. Wisdom and maturity is my experience so the BEST IS YET TO COME"!

Volunteers of the Year

Barbara Barrett and Sharon Doty

I believe that no matter what is happening in your life there is always some way that you can give back to your community. Volunteering enriches my life and gives me purpose. – Barbara Barrett

I volunteer because I truly believe giving back is paying back. My life has been one of fun, love, family and great friends, all priceless gifts. I get great joy from every volunteer hour I give. I am the lucky one. – Sharon Doty

Greater Palm Springs Pride is honored to name Barbara Barrett and Sharon Doty as Pride's Volunteers of the Year in recognition of their outstanding contribution to the betterment of our community through their volunteer efforts.

Barbara's journey started in the Bronx in New York City, then to San Francisco to the Russian River (Guerneville, CA) and then to Palm Springs—lots of miles, lots of love, lots of school, lots of work and lots of volunteering. She is an attorney who has practiced law in San Francisco, Sonoma County and for the past eight years, in Palm Springs. She has been pro bono legal counsel for The Pride Center and currently, The Golden Rainbow Center, where she also serves on their Advisory Counsel. She also served over four years on the Palm Springs Human Rights Commission and on the board of the Desert Business Association. She is the founding and current president of the Desert Women for Equality (DWE). She is most proud of founding the DWE's "We Care" Free Mammogram Program which has paid for over 2,600 mammograms for the uninsured/underinsured women of the Coachella Valley. She credits the LGBT community for making the program a reality, "it was the LGBT community that made the "We Care" program work. The generosity (time and money) of our community is saving women's lives."

Barbara's commitment to community service did not start here. She has volunteered on San Francisco's Gay Legal Referral Panel, served five years as President of the Russian River Chamber of Commerce, served on two Sonoma County citizen's advisory committees, engaged in fundraising for breast cancer and AIDS charities and served on the board of the American Red Cross.

Sharon Doty is retired after working 30 years in the medical field, with Home Care and hospitals as a respiratory therapist as well as a volunteer paramedic. She worked as the co-administrator of the The Desert Pride Center for over four years. Currently, she serves as a state certified volunteer ombudsman for the Riverside County area, ensuring that the rights of residents of skilled nursing and residential care facilities are preserved and they are treated with dignity. She is actively involved in DWE's free mammogram program and co-teaches the "Living with Chronic Illness" program at the Golden Rainbow Center, for which she also serves on the advisory board. Sharon provides free notary services for the Golden Rainbow Center and for clients of the Well in the Desert.

Barbara and Sharon's work in the community is a vital part of their relationship. Sharon observed that "Volunteering sometimes puts pressure on a relationship when we have different ideas. The positive side is what I have learned about Barbara and who she really is, a caring and loving person, not just an attorney." Barbara stated, "Sharon won my heart but more importantly she won my respect—her tireless efforts to make people's lives better is greatly appreciated by everyone that she touches."

Volunteer of the Year

Rick Saputo

I try to make a positive impact on the lives of people I care about.

Rick Saputo

Rick Saputo, publisher of the BottomLine and Pulp magazines, has worked tirelessly to support the movement of LGBT and human rights throughout our region.The list of organizations that Rick supports and works for encompasses a wide spectrum of community effort: Equality California (current board member), Desert AIDS Project (partners for life), AIDS Assistance Program (diamond sponsor), Inland Empire AIDS Project, Golden Rainbow Center, Well in the Desert, Human Rights Campaign (lifetime partner), Greater Palm Springs Pride, San Diego Pride, PSLOD, Mama's Kitchen San Diego, The Center San Diego, Greater San Diego Business Association, Desert Business Association, Stepping Stone San Diego, Opera in the Park and The International Film Festival, to name a few.

Rick worked in the corporate world for seventeen years after graduating from college. He and Tim Beale, his current business partner, decided to move to Palm Springs in late 1989 and start a company. They bought The BottomLine and Pulp magazines. The BottomLine has been a desert staple for thirty years and Pulp is going on eleven years. The BottomLine and Pulp Magazines are also distributed in Rick's second home town of San Diego. Rick's Partner, Larry Hanson, has been a big supporter in all he does and helps EQCA on various committees. Rick's immediate family is too large to mention, over thirty strong headed by his 85 year old mother. Rick is proud to say that they have all been very supportive.

In speaking of the most gratifying memories of his volunteer service to Equality California, Rick says, "There are gratifying moments that happen as we move forward just as there are setbacks. Most recently would be the Judge Vaughn Walker ruling. A huge step in the right direction. Listening to Jerry Brown's support for our movement was also very inspiring."

Greater Palm Springs Pride applauds Rick's service to the community, leadership and volunteerism and takes pleasure in recognizing him as Pride's Volunteer of the Year.

Reflecting the Rainbow!

Special Guest

Wesley Eure

Greater Palm Springs Pride welcomes author, television writer, producer, performer, charity fundraiser, lecturer, plus stage and television director Wesley Eure as Pride's 2010 Special Guest.

In 2008, Wesley created and directed the outrageous musical poolside fundraiser called LalaPOOLooza!! which raised funds for seven Palm Springs charities. The show featured over 85 performers and 100 volunteers. The Human Rights Commission of Palm Springs honored Wesley with a Human Rights Award and declared September 22, 2008 "LalaPOOLooza Day." Wesley received his star on the Palm Springs Walk of Stars on May, 6th, 2007.

In 2009 Wesley was presented with the Bob Hoven Spirit Humanitarian Award. He was "Sainted" by the outrageous fundraisers, The Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, as Saint Run Run Holly Go Lightly...the name is a tribute to the classic line he yelled on Land Of The Lost…."Run Holly, run! There's a dinosaur!" He was also nominated for Best Daytime Series actor from Radio-TV Mirror and Photoplay Awards. Wesley was also made "Lifetime Member" of The Desert Women For Equality's Free Mobile Mammogram Program.

Wesley is a veteran television star of two major network series, Days of Our Lives and Land of the Lost, an author of five books, the co-creator of PBS' number one show for preschoolers, Dragon Tales, and he hosted Nickelodeon's game show, Finders Keepers. He co-produced, wrote and acted in FOX Television's hidden camera shows Totally Hidden Video and Payback. He also wrote and directed Spy TV for NBC.

For many years Wesley was the top fundraiser for the "March of Dimes." He was one of the most sought-after hosts for telethons and fund raising campaigns. In 2007 Wesley hosted a fundraiser for The Palm Spring's Pride Center called "Wesley's Wild and Wacky Game Night." Wesley also was involved with the founding of "Project Angel Food", a non-profit organization that feeds homebound A.I.D.S. patients in Los Angeles.

Wesley is co-producing, with his production company (Cardboard Belt Productions), a new Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Pipin) musical titled Snapshots. Currently Wesley is the Travel editor and columnist for LIVE Magazine in Palm Springs.

BUD LIGHT

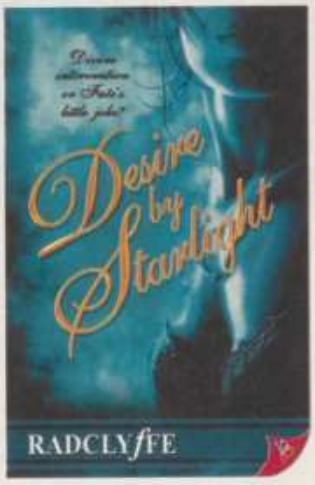

Authors' Village - 10 Years Strong

Thanks to the continued support of the board of Greater Palm Springs Pride, we are privileged to feature GLBT writers at the Authors' Village for the tenth year. Celebrating the diversity of our community and the tremendous creativity of our writers, we recognize how important it is to support their work. It is a challenging time for publishing. The pressure to achieve profits has caused many publishers to shrink their lists and for some to cease publishing altogether. The same pressures of our economy make it harder for GLBT bookstores to continue in business. This makes it all the more important to recognize and support those who do use their creative energies to tell their stories.

We are proud to feature Radclyffe on Sunday at 1:00PM. Prolific author and publisher of Bold Strokes Books, she will also be reading at Q Trading, 606 E. Sunny Dunes Rd. in Palm Springs, Saturday at 6:30 pm with a hosted reception.

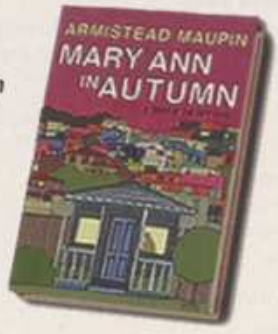

Celebrating the official release of his newest book Mary Ann in Autumn, Tales of the City author Armistead Maupin will be with us signing books on Sunday at 2:00 pm.

Local author David Stukas writing as David James will be signing copies of his new novel Three Bedrooms, Two Baths, One Very Dead Corpse on Saturday and Sunday at 2 pm. All of his books are both heartwarming and very funny and will be available at the festival.

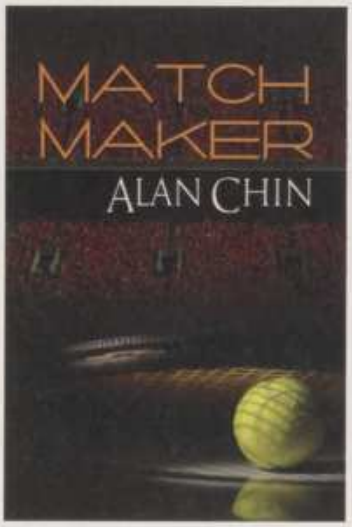

Authors' Village

Kage Alan, whose novels include Andy Stevenson vs. The Lord of the Loins and are filled with intensity and wit, will be signing his newest novel Gaylias: Operation Thunderspell.

Noted author Felice Picano will be signing copies of his recently published classic novels including The Lure. His provocative writing is welcome back in print and sure to please. Also from Bold Strokes Press, author Lisa Girolami whose three novels include The Pleasure Set will be signing.

Match Maker by Alan Chin is newly released and tells the unforgetable story of two tennis pros and lovers coming out and competing in the rough and tumble of Grand Slam Tennis. Alan's other books include Island Song and The Lonely War.

The Authors' Village events are a great way to meet your favorite writers and ask about their works as well as having your books signed. For GLBT publishing to thrive and survive, your support is needed. Read, pass along a book to a friend or join a book discussion club. Above all, give thanks for the ranks of terrific GLBT authors who enrich our lives.

On the 10th Anniversary of the Authors' Village Greater Palm Springs Pride congratulates Q Trading Company for their dedication in making the Authors' Village the top-ranked Pride celebration of authors in the United States. When you visit their shops, please let them know that you appreciate their contribution to the community. Without their support, Authors' Village would not be the premier gathering of authors that it is today.

Continuing to feature local talented writers, Ted Bacino (The Shakespeare Conspiracy), T. D. Austin (People of the Mother Bear), Jim Arnold (Benediction) and Benson Evans (Survivor of Silence), will be signing their books through the festival weekend. Other writers will be joining us, please watch for further details.

Authors' Village sponsors Rick Anderson and Craig Novak of Q Trading Company.

Saturday on the usbank Main Stage

Martha Davis and The Motels

Their breakthrough hit, "Only the Lonely," reached the Billboard Hot 100 and the Billboard Top Tracks chart. Two other singles, "Take the L," and "Forever Mine," also made the Billboard Hot 100. This coincided with the emergence of MTV, which led to popular music videos for both "Only the Lonely" and "Take the L." In 1982, Davis won "Best Performance in a Music Video" for "Only the Lonely" at the American Music Awards. The following year The Motels released the album Little Robbers and its first single, "Suddenly Last Summer," was a Top 10 hit in the United States, and the album went gold in the U.S., Canada, and several other countries.

Entertainment

Sunday on the usbank Main Stage

Dance Diva and Billboard top artist - Crystal Waters brings her playful, party sound to Palm Springs Pride. The pop sensation will perform one party hit after another, from "Gypsy Woman" to "100% Pure Love" to "Say...If You Feel Alright." Bring your friends and dance to the hits "Come On Down," "My Time" and "Destination Calabria" on the great lawn in front of the festival main stage.

Crystal Waters is a woman whose talent and brand has sustained her 20-year career, yet the breadth of her work continues to engage new fans and please her enormous base. She is best known for her string of number one dance hits in the 1990's, including her 1991 signature smash, "Gypsy Woman (She's Homeless)", which garnered her three American Music Award nominations and made her an international sensation.

Robin S

Club legend and Billboard top artist Robin S shot to fame with her 1993 hit "Show Me Love," arguably one of the most famous club songs ever made, having been re-released in 2003, 2006 and now 2010. She has had 6 number ones on the Billboard dance chart. The biggest diva in house music has performed all over the world to sell out audiences in countries including Holland, Italy, Germany, Portugal, France, Japan, Russia, Switzerland, and Turkey to name just a few. Now, she's coming to Palm Springs for an exclusive performance especially at Palm Springs Pride!

National Organization for Women

The National Organization for Women (NOW) is the largest feminist organization in the United States. It was founded in 1966 and has a membership of 500,000 contributing members and 5,987 chapters in 47 U.S. states. The purpose of NOW is to take action to bring women into full participation in the mainstream of American society now, exercising all privileges and responsibilities thereof in truly equal partnership with men.

NOW's priority issues concern U.S. domestic policies. The six core priorities are reproductive issues/abortion rights, violence against women, constitutional equality, promoting diversity/ending racism, lesbian rights, and economic justice.

This year, 2010, is the 90th anniversary of women winning the right to vote in the United States. On August 26, 1920, the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was officially approved. For over three generations, American suffragists played a major role in writing women back into history.

At a time when women were meant to be seen and not heard, these remarkable women braved censure and disgrace by speaking out on behalf of all women and organizing for their rights. The constitutional right for women to vote was raised at the first women's rights convention in 1848 and was finally won in 1920. The 72-year non-violent campaign was waged by tens of thousands of grandmothers to mothers to daughters—united to win the right to vote.

Remarkable women arose in each state and became part of history when they successfully achieved political equality for American women. This 90th Anniversary offers a special opportunity to pay tribute to their courage, determination, tenacity, and to their lasting achievement.

These women not only did not have the right to vote, they were given no choices over their own bodies. Today, we do have a choice, and voting allows us the opportunity to speak for all women and be heard. What we can do as women is to use our vote so that we honor the memory of those women who fought for us!

The Equal Rights Amendment was written by Alice Paul in 1923 to include equal rights under the law for women (the word "women" is not mentioned in the Constitution, and we have no specific right—other than the right to vote that is constitutionally protected). Women across the country are gearing up to make this a priority in 2011.

"We are so very happy to be announcing this current and multi-generational campaign in support of the Equal Rights Amendment," said Zoe Nicholson, NWPC National E.R.A. Liaison and equality advocate. "Obviously our primary goal is to explicitly include men and women in the US Constitution, once and for all, guaranteeing full equality under the law."

This comprehensive and contemporary approach will help to build a campus and media campaign to inform young women that the E.R.A. has not passed and set up a campaign state by state to see that the U.S. Constitution explicitly ensures equality for both men and women.

Locally, PSNOW is proud of our Salm Educational Awards. For the past 15 years, during Women's History Month in March, we have given scholarships to many multi-generational graduates headed for college. We meet monthly and discuss women's issues and how we can help support women locally who choose to run for office.

We must focus and encourage more women to run for office and help make a difference! We women of the 21st Century have the legacy and determination to carry on where our sisters led the way.

We Can Do It! We Can VOTE!

Melinda Tremaglio, President, PSNOW

Lesbian & Gay Rights in the World

ILGA (International Lesbian and Gay Association) has created an innovative global interactive map showing LGBT specific information for every country around the world. The map highlights some stark truths, such as the countries that still apply the death penalty to homosexuals, but it also shows vividly the positive progress being made across the planet to ensure LGBT people everywhere are treated with respect and appreciation for the contribution that they make to the world. You can view the map at http://ilga.org/ilga/en/index.html

International Lesbian Gay Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association is the only worldwide federation campaigning for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and intersex rights. Since 1978. www.ilga.org

ND GAY RIGHTS IN THE WORLD

ILGA, the International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex Association

MAY 2010

RSECUTION	76 countries & 5 entities	PROTECTION	RECOGNITION
uth penalty countries and parts of Nigeria and Somalia mprisonment 5 countries and 5 entities*		Anti-discrimination laws 53 countries and 57 entities*	Recognition of same-sex unions 26 countries and 30 entities*

* include part of a federation, state, province, federal district, any other administrative and/or territorial unit

These laws are aimed at lesbians, gay men and bisexuals and at same-sex activities and relationships. At times, they also apply to trans and intersex people. This edition of the world map (May 2010) was coordinated by Ruben Alonso Sanchez and Stephen Barris with the help of Claudio Ritrovato and Alessia Valenza (ILGA). Design: Laurence Colson and Christian Högl. Data represented in this map is based on "State-Sponsored Homophobia: a world survey of laws prohibiting same-sex activity between consenting adults - 2010", an ILGA report by Daniel Ottosson (available on www.ilga.org in English, Spanish, Portuguese and French). ILGA thanks groups which contributed to the annual update.

Equality California

Message from Geoff Kors, Executive Director

This Pride, as we reflect upon what was a truly historic year for the LGBT Community, we have tremendous achievements to celebrate. Our courts delivered two groundbreaking rulings, giving us greater hope and strength in our ongoing struggle for equality. In August, the U.S. District Court in San Francisco ruled that Proposition 8 is unconstitutional. We won the first round, and the case is now being appealed to the Ninth Circuit Court and could possibly make its way to the U.S. Supreme Court.

In September, a federal judge in Riverside struck down "Don't Ask, Don't Tell," because the discriminatory policy violates the first amendment and due process rights of our brave gay, lesbian and bisexual service members who pledged to serve our nation.

We have also made stunning progress in the state legislature. A record fourteen Equality California-sponsored measures passed during this year's legislative session. By partnering with the LGBT Legislative Caucus and allied lawmakers, Equality California helped secure approval of seven bills and seven resolutions, many of which included more bipartisan support than in any other year in the organization's history. Among the measures passed by the legislature include: legislation that calls for the repeal of a state code mandating the search for a "gay cure;" a bill that will codify freedom of religion in relation to civil marriage; legislation that eliminates legal loopholes with respect to hate crimes; a bill that increases access to mental health services for LGBT and at-risk youth; and legislation expanding protections for LGBT prisoners to prevent sexual assaults. Although the Governor had not yet acted on the bills at the time this article was written, we are confident that most if not all will become the law of the land.

EQ CA

Equality California | eqca.org

The 2010 elections were also incredibly fruitful. Californians voted overwhelmingly for candidates who support full equality for the LGBT community, and with the dedication of our members, thousands of volunteers and our staff, we helped elect a record number of openly LGBT members of the California Legislature. In fact, although the November election had not taken place when this article was written, based on the June primary, it is virtually assured that when the California Assembly and Senate kicks off the 2011 legislative session, it will be with the largest LGBT Caucus in the history of both our state and our nation, with more than five percent of legislators being openly LGBT. Equality California Political Action Committee also saw success in a new initiative to elect more LGBT judges to the bench.

In the last decade, California has been dramatically transformed into a state with the most comprehensive rights and protections for LGBT community members in the nation. Over the past twelve years, close to eighty Equality California-sponsored measures have passed the state assembly, including: bills creating the country's first domestic partner registry; protecting LGBT youth in public schools; requiring equality in insurance; and ensuring the strongest protections for transgender individuals in the nation. We also helped make history in 2005 and 2007 when the state legislature twice passed bills that would have allowed same-sex couples to marry.

Although we have accomplished a great deal together as a community, there is still much to do. We must continue to stand up, stand out and stand proud in order to create a fully inclusive California where LGBT Californians not only achieve equality under the law but also gain basic acceptance that our youth grow up knowing that they can thrive anywhere in our state with dignity and freedom.

Pride Celebration History

This year's celebration marks the 41th anniversary of the first pride festival in New York City following the legendary and pivotal Stonewall Riots in 1969. With every step forward we take as a community in the progression of rights and acceptance for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer community, we honor the efforts of those whose shoulders on which we stand.

Pictured here are the program covers for Palm Springs Pride celebrations from 1985 to the present which serve as a reminder of our movement's journey in the Coachella Valley.

As we embark on planning the 25th anniversary of Palm Springs Pride in 2011, we invite you to dig out your old pride memorabilia. Consider donating your pride items to Greater Palm Springs Pride and help us document our region's pride history. Contact info@pspride.org or call (760) 416-8711.
